FIRPO OF ARGENTINE WINS IN EIGHTH ROUND

FORMER CHAMPION KNOCKED OUT BY A BLOW TO THE JAW

Greatest Crowd in History of Ring Gathered —Witnessed Most Brilliant Bout in Recent Heavyweight History—Argentinian Proves Superiority of Youth Over Willard

(By The Associated Press)
RINGSIDE, Jersey City, July 12.—Jess Willard, the man mountain from Kansas, went back to fistic oblivion tonight but he staged the last, tho futile, attack of his comeback before a vast throng of more than 100,000, the greatest in ring history, that filled Boyle's Thirty Acres to overflowing. Luis Angel Firpo, the dark-browed mauler from the Argentine, closed the door to Willard's attempted return to fistic fame by knocking out the giant former champion in the eighth round of a slashing battle—one of the greatest in recent heavyweight history. Incidentally, he reached the goal at which he has aimed for the past year of his meteoric rise to prominence—a match for the title with Jack Dempsey.

There was no question of the superiority of the brilliant Argentine battler tonight. Willard's superior weight, height and reach enabled the big Kansan to check Firpo's rushing attacks in most of the early rounds, but, despite the American's gameness under fire, the tide of battle swung inevitably in favor of the younger, more rugged fighter.

INQUEST INTO EXPLOSION AT ALTON MONDAY

Will Endeavor to Fix
Cause of Terrible Disaster

(By The Associated Press)
ALTON, Ill., July 12.—The coroner's inquest into the death of the 12 employees of the Western Cartridge company, who were killed Tuesday in an explosion at the company's plant in East Alton will start Monday. It was announced today by Deputy Coroner Teeper. No definite theory as to the direct cause of the explosion has yet been offered and it is believed by coroner Mercer of Madison county that the cause of the explosion never will be ascertained.

Fear was entertained for the safety of Trykue Kleveus 24 years old and employee of the Salvage department in which the explosion occurred. The young man has not been seen since Tuesday noon when he took his lunch-eon at the hotel where he had been staying. At the hotel it was said he had not returned since, but that his clothing and belongings are still in his room.

AUBURN MINER SHOT BY POLICE

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 12.—Fear that friends of Benjamin Pionnier, an Auburn miner who was shot and killed tonight by Policeman W. F. Jackson at Auburn, would seek to avenge his death, caused Sheriff O. C. Lemon to summon all available deputies to the town to prevent trouble. Pionnier was killed by policeman Jackson after the latter had been struck in the head by one of Pionnier's friends.

Immediately after the shooting there was threats of violence and Mayor Theodore Smith of Auburn ordered Jackson to surrender himself to the sheriff. Twenty five citizens of Auburn have been deputized. According to word from Sheriff Lemon tonight everything was quiet.

EXPENSE MONEY HELD
Springfield, Ill., July 12. (By A. P.)—Expenses of the house and senate elections committees, amounting to $17,299.86, incurred in trying election contest cases, have been held up by State Auditor Russell on an opinion of Attorney General Brundage holding that the bill appropriating for the expenses is unconstitutional. The action affects a number of attorneys, clerks and a stenographer for the committees who worked in the contest cases.

NEW TANGLE IS SEEN IN JURY FIXING TRIAL

Defense Conclusion Takes State by Surprise

(By The Associated Press)
WAUKESHA, Ill., July 12.—The Field - Kaufman Courtney jury fixing case growing out of the trial and acquittal of Governor Len Small worked into a new tangle today when the state endeavored to re-open its case for presentation of additional evidence after the defense rested unexpectedly at noon without putting either of the defendants on the witness stand.

The plea of State's Attorney Smith for opportunity to submit further evidence to the jury was denied following which the state asked for a recess until Friday morning to lay new lines of battle.

Surprise Sprung.
Conclusion of the defense testimony came as a surprise to the state, and was contrary to the earlier plans of the defense counsel. It had been definitely determined earlier in the week to place all three defendants on the stand.

Testimony today that Thomas E. Sommerville, one of the two star witnesses for the state had been insane for six years was the climax of the case of the defense. Dr. William O. Krohn, an expert alienist questioned concerning his examination of Sommerville declared him a mental defective subject to delusions of grandeur, delusions of persecution and to emotional outbreaks.

He judged the conditions as having developed in Sommerville about six years ago.

Sommerville Testimony.
Sommerville testified last week that Courtney had approached him during the selection of the Small jury in April 1922 with the offer of a state job "if he would look after the governor."

Sommerville pointed out Courtney in the court room as the man who made the offer.

The testimony of Dr. Krohn today was offered by the defense counsel, they told the court, to establish the incredibility of the Sommerville testimony.

The state desired to reopen its case, it was explained to introduce testimony of a Springfield, Ill. hotel clerk that defendants Courtney and Kaufman were in that city on February 6th, 1923. It was expected to show with this evidence, State's Attorney Smith told the court in chambers, that the two men were dealing with Governor Small's son, Leslie Small at the time.

The Governor's son testifying here last week, said two men who introduced themselves as Courtney and Kaufman, called on him in February of this year at his office in Springfield to demand $7,000 "hush money" for their continued silence about "all they knew concerning jury fixing activities in Lake county during the governor's trial."

Small could not identify Courtney or Kaufman in court here as the men who called on him in Springfield.

Judge Hopkins' Ruling.
Judge Hopkins ruled that the additional testimony may go into the trial record but held it is not of sufficient importance to justify a re-opening of the case before the jury. He took the stand that the established presence of Courtney and Kaufman in Springfield would not necessarily imply dealings between them and Small particularly since Small's testimony did not fix the date of the alleged visit of the Chicago men.

Further the court held, the Springfield hotel register has been in the hands of the prosecution since the trial began and should have been mentioned in evidence before the defense rested.

Presentation of the state's rebuttal testimony should begin Friday unless argument on the motion to re-open prevents. The case is expected to go to the jury Saturday or Monday.

Wheat and Flour are Down to 1914 Levels

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 12.—Wheat and flour are at the lowest levels since before the World war.

For the first time since 1914 wheat sold for less than $1 a bushel on the Chicago board of trade yesterday and at the same time Minneapolis millers cut the price of family brands of flour in carload lots to $6 a barrel, the lowest since 1915.

Brokers gave over production the world over and a general readjustment of grain values towards pre-war conditions as a fundamental cause for the depression. The crop was further accelerated by more optimistic reports from the northwest, where it had been reported wheat was being damaged by rust.

Trading yesterday was feverish. In Chicago July wheat sold as low as 99 1/8 cents a bushel, and closed at 99 3/4 cents. December reached $1.01, its lowest since November, 1922, when it fell to 98 cents. It advanced 1 1/2 cents at the close of the market, however.

At Kansas City and Wichita, Kan., two other large markets, July wheat sold at 90 3/4 cents a bushel. Smaller markets were above that figure. At Minneapolis spring wheat sold at the lowest since 1916, transactions being made at $1.02 1/2, a drop of 7 cents since Monday.

Authorities generally admitted $1 wheat would not permit the farmer production cost, and Gilbert Dier, market statistician for the American Farm Bureau said that if September and December wheats go as low as 95 cents it would mean a loss of $80,000,000 to the American farmers.

"The market has just been marking time for the last few days," he said. "The traders have been worried about the possible damage of black rust to the wheat crop in the northwest. When reports came in that all danger was past, the bottom dropped out of the market."

RUHR OCCUPATION BY FRENCH STIRS BRITAIN DEEPLY

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, July 13.—The prime minister Stanley Baldwin in the house of commons and Marquis Curzon, in the house of Lords, today made statements to eager audiences today made identical pronouncements on the government's policy on the reparations problem. In contrast to such statements by his predecessors, Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Bonar Law, which were very long, Premier Baldwin's pronouncements were particularly brief, taking about sixteen minutes for delivery and in neither house did the opposition offer criticism of any consequence the momentous proceedings were quickly ended.

The question on everybody's lips—"how far the British government's open disapproval of the French Ruhr policy and its holding aloof therefrom were to be converted into any active policy, separate from France—was to a great extent unanswered. Premier Baldwin certainly moved quite perceptively away from Mr. Bonar Law's attitude of passivism inasmuch as he announced the government's decision to submit to the allies a separate reply to Germany's latest offer.

But he did not give the slightest indication of the nature of the proposed reply.

MANY SOLDIERS NOW IN RUHR DISTRICT

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, July 12.—According to figures described as coming from a well informed German source, there are now 80,000 French and 70,000 Belgian troops in the Ruhr, and 97,000 French and 17,000 Belgian troops in the old occupied territory. In addition 10,000 French and 1,000 Belgian railway men have been sent into the Ruhr.

During the six months of occupation 92 persons are reported to have lost their lives while 71,145 were expelled. The state mint also says that 478,700 tons of coal and 535,200 of coke were removed from the Ruhr between January 11, the date of the occupation and June 30.

MUST TAKE ALL TROUBLES TO COURT
Danville, Ill., July 12.—Declaring that organized labor must bow to the right of the open shop to prevail and that unions must settle their differences with capital in the courts along regular channels, General Charles G. Dawes, of Chicago, delivered a forceful address here today, as the first step in the organization of Company No 12 of the "Minute Men of the Constitution."

SUICIDES BY SHOOTING
Orange N. J., July 12.—Kenneth M. Eydland, a member of the New York Consolidated Exchange, committed suicide at the home of his sister here early today by shooting himself through the head.

Miss Serna Eydland, the sister, told the police Eydland had been despondent for some time because of business troubles. Eydland's two children, Kenneth M. Jr., and Marga, were asleep in the house when their father took his life.

A Duer of Waverly motored to the city yesterday.

NAMED TO HEAD
BIG UNIVERSITY

(By The Associated Press)

Since the retirement of former President Harry Pratt Judson last February, Dr. Burton had been acting president of the University. He is head of the department of new testament and early Christian literature.

"President Burton is a scholar of international reputation, an educator of wide observation, and an experienced and accomplished administrator," Harold H. Swift, president of the board of trustees said in announcing the election.

"His connection with the university of the beginning, and his studies abroad fit him admirably for the important position to which he has been elected."

COST OF FREIGHT TO BE GUARDED BY COMMISSION

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 12.—The commission authorized by the last legislature to oppose the steel industry practice known as "Pittsburgh Plus," was appointed today by Governor Small with the following members:

Senator John T. Denvir, Chicago; Representative Robert Scholes, Peoria; Representative J. E. McMackin, Salem; S. H. Thompson of Quincy, representing the Farm Federation; B. F. Peek of the Deer Plow company, Moline, representing the steel users, and B. F. Baker of Kewanee, representing the rolled steel consumers.

The commission is to meet tomorrow at the Union League Club, Chicago, to perfect an organization. The commission is empowered to employ all legitimate means to protect the citizens of Illinois from the practice which adds the cost of freight from Pittsburgh, Pa., to all steel products, irrespective of their point of origin.

AUTO ACCIDENTS GROW IN NUMBER

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 12.—Police reports tonight showed there had been 257 automobile accidents in Chicago for the week ending yesterday. Of this number 50 were of a serious nature and 13 persons were killed.

COUPLE TAKEN IN
AS VAGRANTS

Minneapolis, July 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Morgan, arrested near Bush Lake early Tuesday by Deputy Sheriffs, when Moran was mistaken for Edwin Rust, North Dakota gunman, were sentenced to ten days each in the Hennepin jail when they pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy before a justice of the peace at Bloomington, near here, last night. The couple explained that they were hikers from Bloomington, Illinois but their actions and the fact that Moran carried a pistol and was practically without funds caused an investigation by the sheriff's office.

KILLED IN EXPLOSION
Chicago, July 12.—Two men were probably fatally injured in an explosion on the fourth floor of an eight story building of the Mid City Packing company today. There were a large number of spectacular escapes and for a time it was thought that a number of negro girls in the upper stories had been trapped, owing to the rapidly spreading of the flames. The building was totally destroyed.

DECREE IS ENTERED MAKING PERMANENT FORMER INJUNCTION

Employees and Officers of Railway Shop Crafts Union Permanently Restrained from Interference with Railway Operation—Most Sweeping Injunction Granted

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 12.—Four hundred employees and officers of the Railway Shop Crafts Unions who went on strike a year ago in protest against a United States railroad labor board decision, were permanently restrained today from interference in any way with the operation of railroads in what is considered the most sweeping permanent injunction ever granted.

The final decree which makes permanent a temporary injunction granted the federal government October 5, 1922 upon application by Attorney General Daugherty, was entered by Judge James H. Wilkerson in United States district court today.

The defendant unions, which comprise the Railway Employees' Department of the American Federation of Labor, were given sixty days to file an appeal.

In entering the decree, Judge Wilkerson said that the evidence in the case showed "beyond doubt that it was part of the purpose of those engaged in this committee by a nation to carry on the strike by assault and acts of violence."

He then cited numerous acts of violence during the strike and noted that damage to the roads during the strike, according to the evidence was more than $96,000,000.

Referring to the contention of the unions that the temporary injunction was an interference with free speech, Judge Wilkerson declared it a misnomer "to characterize any of the acts of the defendants as peaceful."

"The peaceful words of pickets, the peaceful exhortations of strike leaders take on by virtue of the atmosphere of lawlessness and violence in which they are spoken, a force not inhering in the words themselves and therefore transcending right of free speech," he said.

History of Case
The labor board decision which resulted in the calling of the shop crafts strike on July 1, 1922, ordered a wage cut effective on that day. For two months leaders of the unions maintained that the strike was becoming more effective each day while railroad heads asserted that the striking men had been or were replaced without serious interference with the railroad service. Different roads however, sought injunctions restraining interference with the service and alleged that workers who had replaced the striking men were being interfered with.

Then on September 12, 1922, two months after the calling of the strike, Attorney General Daugherty appeared unexpectedly in federal court in Chicago and sought the injunction which was made final in today's decree.

Scope of Injunction
Mr. Daugherty asked that the defendants not only be enjoined from interfering with railroad properties but also that they be enjoined from conspiring to injure or interfere with the railroad companies in the conduct of their business. He maintained that the strike had resulted in interference with interstate commerce and transportation of the mails, asserting that the situation required that the defendants be enjoined from making threats, jeers, taunts or entreaties, from loitering in the vicinity of places of ingress and egress from the railway company property and from interfering with the calling of the operation of the roads by means of letter, telegrams or word of mouth including the use of telephones, restraints of picketing and visiting of the homes of the employees who had replaced the strikers with the intent to dissuade them from their labors also was sought.

Strike Violence
In support of his petition the attorney general declared that the strike was accompanied by violence. The granting of the injunction was opposed by representatives of the shop crafts, but a temporary injunction was granted on October 5, 1922.

In the meantime, however, the striking men returned to work on 31 major railroads of the country on the basis of what was known as the Baltimore agreement, an accord which was reached during September 1922, between representatives of the striking men and representatives of the 31 roads. Under this agreement the men accepted the wage cut ordered by the labor board and left the question of seniority, which developed into the main point of disagreement to a commission.

DISTILLERY GUARD SHOT AND KILLED

PEORIA, Ill., July 12.—J. S. Szold, a watchman at the Old Majestic distillery was shot and killed by whisky thieves at midnight. Two other watchmen were found bound and beaten at their posts.

Police found the dead watchman and the other two men when they answered a burglar alarm turned in at the distillery. Who turned the alarm in is a puzzle to the police as both the other watchmen were bound.

The thieves were seen speeding over the Illinois river bridge toward East Peoria by several persons. They did not obtain any liquor.

A U. S. Department of Agriculture report just given publicly declares that agricultural products by comparison with their purchasing power are making a better showing. It goes without saying that this report does not include recent weeks. Otherwise, a different story would have been told. Grain reports that are not absolutely up to date do not have a great value.

Reports of the trial of Fred Lundin and his associates in the Chicago school board alleged graft case make interesting reading matter. The story of the rise of Lundin from a peddler of patent medicines to a place of large responsibility in the business and political life of Chicago reads like a romance.

From an unprejudiced viewpoint it looks as if the state has not built up a strong case and the trial savors very strongly of political warfare.

If you are not aware that there is public interest in prize fighting you should have viewed the throng of hundreds of men, women and children who gathered in front of the Journal building last night to hear the reports from the Willard-Firpo contest. It is interesting to note too that it was a Willard crowd and there wasn't a cheer when the flash of Firpo's victory came.

The appointment of a citizen's fire committee carries out an excellent thought. Citizens committees in Jacksonville appointed for various purposes have been uniformly helpful. The purpose of the fire committee to work in a co-operative way with the city council fire committee and with the men of the department. The very interest that such a committee will take in its work will have the effect of improving department conditions.

In a business way the public has a very special interest in the fire department and the greater its efficiency the greater the protection for property and the greater the likelihood of lower insurance rates.

DESERTING SAILORS.
Sailors are said to be deserting foreign ships in American ports to the extent of hundreds every week, and signing up on American ships. So serious has this practice become in the British merchant marine that the British government is taking steps to prevent it.

The sailors' contract requires that they shall finish a voyage. It is announced that those deserting and sailing on other ships to British ports will be arrested there for breach of contract. Action of this sort was threatened when the Leviathan sailed with a couple of hundred English deserters in her crew.

This is a curious situation, especially in its bearings on prohibition problem. Foreign crews almost invariably have liquor rations. It has been urged against American prohibition that it would make more difficult the obtaining of crews. Yet we find the crews greatly preferring the American vessels.

They do it because of the higher pay and better labor conditions provided under the American seamen's law. Obviously sailors as a class cannot care so much for liquor as tradition would make them, and the land of prohibition and good pay scores an unexpected advantage.

TOO MUCH WHEAT.
Not long ago the world was hungry for wheat and eagerly absorbed all that America had to offer. Those were golden days for our wheat-growers. Now there is a sad slump. It is good as regards the welfare of the world in general, because it means more plentiful production and less hunger everywhere; but it is hard on the American farmer.

There is a hold-over of last year's wheat in this country and the new crop is estimated at 800,000,000 bushels. Other countries also have large crops. It does seem as if, with all the agricultural intelligence and government authority in this country, more might be done in an organized way to adjust acreage and production to the demand, year by year, instead of leaving such adjustments to chance and the judgment of individual farmers.

SCOTT MAN GETS HEAVY SENTENCE

Wes Walker Is Given $50 and 30 Days at Winchester-Ice Cream Social Draws Large Crowd—Hold Picnic Here

Winchester, July 12.—A jury in county court here this morning was deprived of the privilege of returning a verdict when Wes Walker pleaded guilty to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Walker was fined $50 and sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

Music was furnished by a male quartet from Jacksonville and the Winchester band. Both the quartet and band pleased the large audience and received hearty applause. Visitors were present from Jacksonville, Murrayville, Chapin, Alsey and Bluffs.

Members of Mrs. Cal Simmons' Sunday school class of the Baptist church enjoyed a bountiful picnic supper and general good time at Nichols park in Jacksonville this evening. The heavy rain kept many from attending.

Mrs. M. L. Sapington, Mrs. Thomas Kirkman and Mrs. Julia Werner were visitors in Jacksonville today.

A jury in county court here today found Ben Johnson guilty of assault and battery with a deadly weapon.

AUTO THIEF PULLS GUN ON RESIDENT

Harry Vasconcellos, 710 North Diamond street, had an exciting chase with a nauto thief in the small hours of Thursday morning. He was awakened by the chase with an auto thief in the yard and realized that someone was taking out a car. He rushed to his own car and gave chase to the intruder. After a chase over town, the cars arrived in the business district, where the unknown man stopped the machine and got out of his car and started after the other man, who turned and drew a gun. Needless to say, the pursuer allowed the man to go unmolested, being satisfied with recovering the car.

Some time Wednesday night a truck was taken from the home of J. C. Weber, 320 West Court street. When the machine was discovered to be missing, police were notified and got on the trail. The truck was found late yesterday afternoon abandoned on West Lafayette avenue near the second ward school building.

BROOK MILLS IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

Blaze Discovered Early This Morning—Department Makes Quick Run—Partly Covered by Insurance

At one o'clock this, Friday morning, fire was discovered in the Brook Mills situated on South Main street and operated by McNamara & Heneghan.

A general alarm was sounded and the fire department made a record run to the scene and soon had several streams of water playing upon the blaze, which was practically extinguished within half an hour.

The mill itself was not badly damaged the fire being confined to the second story where it is presumed to have originated. There was not much stock on this floor.

On the lower floor there was stored nearly a car load of mixed feed, forty-five barrels of flour, about a thousand bushels of oats, eight hundred bushels of ear corn, about the same amount of shelled corn and a quantity of miscellaneous produce, all of which were more or less damaged by water.

The loss on building and contents is partially covered by insurance.

According to those who viewed the work of the fire department the excellent manner in which it was handled, their promptness and skilful handling undoubtedly preventing a much greater loss.

The only theory advanced for the origin of the fire is that it was caused by spontaneous combustion.

WHITE HALL PASTOR TO TAKE LONG VACATION

Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick to Have a Year's Leave of Absence From Pastoral Duties—Other White Hall News

White Hall, July 12.—Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick will take a vacation of a year from pastoral duty when the annual conference of the M. E. church convenes in September. He has not finally determined how or where the time will be spent, depending on the condition of Mrs. Kirkpatrick's eye trouble. Their son, Dr. John Kirkpatrick, is now in London on a trip abroad. Rev. Kirkpatrick will begin a series of six outdoor illustrated sermons next Sunday night on the church lawn with a study of Southeastern Asia. The second will be of the general interest, and it will treat of South America, a country whose importance in architecture, wonderful cities and general evidence of prosperity will be a revelation to our people. Their daughter, Mrs. Myra Shumaker, will arrive from Hindsboro, Friday.

The White Hall K. of P. band has voted to participate in the band festival at Roodhouse on the 25th inst.

A financial statement shows that the committee in charge of the dedication of Revolutionary headstones at White Hall on July 4th expended approximately $1500, and that the accounts are balanced without a cent in excess of expenses. A small deficit falls on the members of the committee in restoring Gregory park to its former condition of cleanliness. The occasion was one for the benefit of the entire county, and it was planned and financed by White Hall people in making it of the most far-reaching influence in behalf of restoring the spirit of '76 and the spirit of patriotism, as well as to foster more attention to perpetuating the memories of the defenders of the nation in all wars. Supreme Justice Thompson, the principal speaker, was accompanied by his father A. A. Thompson, after a most pleasant visit among old home folks at Roodhouse and White Hall.

Mrs. W. C. Springgate has arrived from Oshkosh, Wis., for a stay of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, being accompanied by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth.

PLAN TO ESTABLISH RELIGIOUS SCHOOLS AT STATE COLLEGES

Ann Arbor, (A P)—A school of religion supported by Protestants, Roman Catholics and Jews, one of a number of similar institutions to be established at state universities where state laws do not permit religious instruction as part of the curriculum, will open at the University of Michigan next year.

This school was projected by the National Council of Schools of Religion and financed by volunteer contributions.

Alex C. Angell of Detroit is temporary president of the Michigan school, whose executive committee in a statement covering the aims of the new institutions says:

"The plan has the sympathy and support of Protestants, Roman Catholics and Jews. The plan is the result of a growing belief that there is a serious gap in our modern educational system. Our forefathers, who identified religion with sectarianism, wishing to insure freedom of conscience, placed a constitutional bar, perhaps, not unwisely, in nearly all the states, on the teaching of religion in tax-supported schools, colleges and universities. As a result the study of religion and ethics has been too much neglected; education has become increasingly utilitarian and materialistic. The graduates of our tax-supported institutions are more and more becoming neither religious nor irreligious, but simply non-religious."

"It is proposed through schools of religion, to give instruction in the history, literature and philosophy of religion and in the fundamental principles underlying all religion; for it has been and is bound to be an important factor in private and public life and cannot safely be ignored in any system of education which aims to develop character."

"No tax money will be used to support the schools of religion, and they are to be free from sectarianism and denominationalism."

"The National Council is co-operating with local forces in Michigan in establishing at Ann Arbor the seat of the University of Michigan, with its 10,000 or more students, the first fully equipped school of religion. It is expected that other similar schools will be developed at other great educational centers.

"The entire movement is inspired by the widespread conviction that something essential is lacking in our modern civilization, and that the best way to meet the demands of youth for practical philosophy of life is to enable them to estimate rightly the relative value of the spiritual and of the material life; and that this task can be accomplished most effectively in the great educational centers."

COURT RAIMENTS COST MEN $200, WOMEN $300

London, (AP)—Americans who were fortunate enough to share in the recent court of King George and Queen Mary found the privilege of meeting the British sovereigns a rather expensive one. To conform to accepted etiquette on such occasions it was necessary for the men to wear silk velvet suits with knee breeches, knee and shoe buckles, and silk stockings, the whole costing them something like $200.

The women's raiment, consisting of court gown with long train, feathers and veil, fan, gloves, slippers and silk stockings, represented an outlay of $300 or more. These clothes were discarded immediately after the court function because they possess no utilitarian value.

There are certain imperative regulations which must be observed by women in court dress. Skirts must not be less than three inches from the ground, and trains must measure no more than 18 inches from the heels of the wearer when standing. The veil must not be more than 45 inches long. Bouquets and fans are optional, but many women choose flowers.

Miss Margaret Ryan was among the Franklin residents who visited Jacksonville Thursday.

Mrs. Alfred Souza was a shopper from Route 3, yesterday.

Circular Bungalow Saves Space and Steps

A British architect has designed a circular bungalow which is cheap to construct and easy to maintain, whose interior arrangement should save many steps daily for the housewife. The structure of the inner room, the largest one shown in the accompanying floor plan, forms the backbone of the whole framework, and from the corners of this, six partitions radiate, giving space for four rooms, a kitchen, a hall, a servant's bedroom, a bathroom, and a larder, in addition to the large inner room.

The outside wall forms a polygon of 12 sides, a dome fitted over the center room providing light and air. A form of laminated wood is used in constructing the bungalow, all sections of which are ready-cut at the factory and so designed as to enable three men to assemble them into a house within a week's time.

Weed-Pulling Fork for Hoe

Weed-Pulling Fork for Hoe

A practical and back-saving tool for pulling weeds from the vegetable garden that cannot be easily reached with an ordinary hoe without endangering the plants, is shown in the illustration. A piece of 3/4-in. round iron rod is bent to the shape shown, to form a two-pronged fork. This fork is flattened and drilled at the points indicated. Corresponding holes are drilled in the blade of the hoe, and the fork riveted to the blade.

In use, the weed is gripped between the prongs of the fork, and the handle of the hoe pulled down, the edge of the hoe blade acting as a fulcrum. In this way the most stubborn weeds that often grow so close to potato and tomato vines that they escape notice until they have attained considerable height, are uprooted.

To remove dust and lint from dark-colored clothing, rub lightly with a piece of damp flannel.

A Simple Method of Edging Lawns

When the surface of a lawn is on the same level as the lawn, it is a common practice to trim the overhanging grass by means of a spade or other sharp implement, leaving a small V-shaped trench. If there is much of a slope to the lawn, the rains often wash away the soil thus exposed, and make refilling necessary at intervals.

Under such conditions it is better to refrain from further trimming, and allow the grass to grow. As soon as the roots have gained a firm foothold, to prevent erosion of the soil, further growth can be checked for the remainder of the growing season by running the flame of a gasoline blowtorch along a narrow strip.

FIRPO OF ARGENTINE
WINS IN EIGHTH ROUND

Des Moines, Iowa, was knocked out in the first round of their bout after a minute and four seconds of fighting.

Johnson flew from his corner at his opponent. There were a few slashing blows, nearly all of them delivered by Johnson. McAuliffe retreated but Johnson caught his quarry and in an instant McAuliffe was flat on his back. He arose, only to be knocked half thru the ropes in a sitting posture by a right to the jaw. Crawling back into the ring, he crunched by the ropes and was unable to arise until Joe Jeanette, negro referee had counted him out.

While he was crouching, his handlers showered him with water and when the bout ended hardly before it began, numbers at the ringside thought he had been disqualified.

The Fight Receipts. RINGSIDE, Jersey City, July 12.—Jess Willard will receive about $120,000 and Luis Firpo around $80,000 as their shares of the gate receipts for their battle tonight. These figures were based on estimated total receipts of $400,000.

Willard received 30 per cent and Firpo 20 per cent of the gross official.

Official check, however, Tex Rickard said, will not be completed until tomorrow. His estimate of an attendance of more than 100,000, he said, was inclusive of all within the bowl, police, ushers and others who did not figure in the box office total.

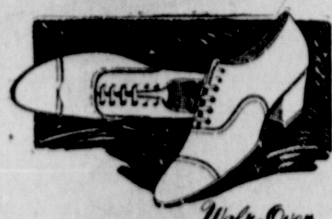

Participants' Opinions. Luis Angelo Firpo, conqueror of Jess Willard, took his triumph with the same solemnity that he displayed in the seven and a fraction rounds to put the giant Kansan down.

"Willard is a fine man. I am proud to have defeated him," he said.

Told that Willard had declared he would make "a great match" for Champion Dempsey, he said:

"I have never seen Dempsey in the ring, but I am anxious to get can beat him." Firpo said Willard had given him a tough battle.

"The blows the former champion landed," he said,

TEX RICKARD TO PROMOTE FIRPO-
DEMPSEY MATCH

Kearns Willing to Sign if Satisfactory Terms are Arranged

(By The Associated Press.) RINGSIDE, Jersey City, N. J., July 12.—Tex Rickard tonight said he probably would begin negotiations as soon as possible to match Luis Angel Firpo with Jack Dempsey for a title match, in either September or October.

Rickard has Firpo under contract to meet Dempsey and will confer with Jack Kearns, the title holder's manager in the near future.

General opinion is that Rickard will choose the site of tonight's fight for his next championship venture. Kearns was at the ringside tonight and declared his readiness to sign for a Firpo match if his terms are met. Just what these terms are he did not reveal.

BRAZIL'S FUEL
IMPORTS INCREASE

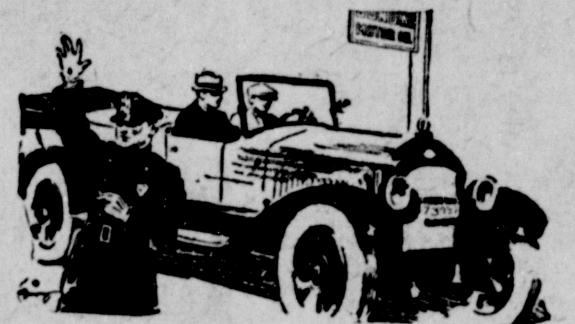

Rio De Janeiro, (A P).—Although the greater part of Brazil lies within the tropics, one of the greatest problems involved in the country's economic expansion is that of fuel supply. In 1922, according to official figures published here, Brazil spent approximately $27,000,000 on imported fuels.

The principal difficulty in the way of developing known sources of fuel in Brazil at present is the lack of transportation facilities. Coal mined in Brazil costs more on this market than that imported from England and the United States.

ATTEMPT TO OVERCOME RADIO INTERFERENCE

WASHINGTON, (By A. P.)—Interference by different radio transmitting stations, the bane of the radio operator's existence, may be largely eliminated as a result of a series of experiments conducted by physicists at the United States Bureau of Standards.

The experiments deal with two main factors, directional antennae for transmitting and receiving, and the use of exceedingly small wave lengths.

With few exceptions radio communication has been conducted on wave lengths of not less than 200 metres and there has been comparatively little experimentation on shorter lengths. The bureau experimenters are using a wave length of only 10 metres.

The directional antennae used apply virtually the same principles involved in the searchlight. The waves from a small generating set are reflected by a parabolic reflector of hanging wires, and just as the searchlight sends a narrow beam of light in parallel lines for a long distance, so does the parabolic reflector collect and send out in almost parallel lines the radio impulses. At least 75 per cent of the radiated power is said to be confined to an angle of 40 degrees.

The apparatus as constructed is small, but strong signals have been received from it to a distance of two miles, using a single turn coil antenna six inches in diameter. The advantage of using short length waves is said to lie in the fact that short wave stations can be more easily "tuned out" than those employing lengths in the hundreds or thousands of metres.

Call M. C. Hook & Co., for that fire insurance.

ASTEROID "AURORA" LOST TWELVE YEARS THROUGH ERROR

Berkeley, Calif., (A. P.)—Dr. A. O. Leuschner, professor of astronomy at the University of California here, Dr. H. Thiele, an assistant astronomer of Lick Observatory, and a number of advanced students have started a computation on the tiny asteroid "Aurora," which was lost to the scientific world for 12 years. An effort is being made by the University of California to solve the motion of Aurora.

The little body, one of the several hundred minor planets which revolve about the sun between Mars and Jupiter, has given astronomers much trouble since its discovery a quarter century ago. Although a considerable amount of computing has been done on the asteroid's orbit, errors were made many years ago which resulted in the asteroid's becoming "lost" for 12 years.

Several years ago it was discovered at some distance from the point where calculations predicted it should be. Working with data resulting from observations of Aurora since her rediscovery, University of California astronomers have been able to detect important errors made by German astronomers years ago.

The problem, local astronomers state, is one of considerable difficulty because of the nearness of the asteroid to Jupiter and Saturn, two mighty bodies which are continually pulling Aurora out of the path laid down for it by the sun. It is to the calculations of the effect of these disturbers that the work is now being directed by Professor Leuschner, and months of mathematical work will be required before the problem of Aurora's motion is solved, the professor states.

MEXICAN RAILROADS ANNOUNCE EXCURSIONS

MEXICO CITY, (By A. P.)—Excursion rates, consisting of a round trip ticket for a one-way fare, have been established by the National Lines for those who wish to visit the northern states of Mexico on September 10, to observe the total eclipse of the sun. It is hoped that similar rates will be granted by the railways of the United States.

In preparation for the thousands of scientists and others who are expected to visit Mexico to view the eclipse, the government is planning the establishment of numerous encampments at advantageous points in San Luis Potosi, Lower California and Sonora. While the phenomenon will be visible in all parts of the republic, these states are believed to offer more advantages for accurate observation.

The news that the world's most eminent scientists from America, Europe and Asia will attempt to check the accuracy of the Einstein theory of relativity by observations of the sun's eclipse from Mexico's mountains has roused the government to exert every effort to facilitate their work. Their instruments will be allowed to enter the country duty free and the government plans to erect whatever structures may be needed.

Miss Grace Wharton who has been very ill at her home on West North street is very much better and is again able to go out.

WORLD'S SPEEDIEST TRAIN AVERAGES 61 MILES AN HOUR

London, (By A. P.)—The fastest train in the world is now running between London and Swindon, a distance of 77 1/4 miles, which it covers in 75 minutes, travelling at the rate of 61.8 miles an hour.

This is one of five trains announced in the summer schedules of the English railroads, that will make better than a mile a minute on regular runs. The longest run is between London and Bath, 106 7/8 miles, which is made at the rate of 61.1 miles an hour.

Another feature of the summer train schedules is that daily non-stop trains are run between London and all the important cities and summer resorts in England, which are designed to allow the workers to live at the seaside and continue to work in London.

BONES OF ANCIENT MAMMAL FOUND IN SANDS OF ARIZONA

Yuma, Ariz., (A. P.)—A petrified specimen believed to be part of the backbone of a prehistoric mammoth or dinosaur with fragments of the ribs still attached has been brought here from the Mohawk district in eastern Yuma county and placed on display.

The bones were found in sandy soil but portions of quartz adhering to the bone are believed to indicate that the remains have been under pressure for centuries.

Plans are under way for an expedition to the site of the find in an effort to locate the rest of the gigantic skeleton. If the site proves to be a rich fossil field an attempt probably will be made to interest the University of Arizona in more extensive excavations.

All indications point to a large wheat crop here in Morgan county and some excellent yields are being reported. WOULD KEEP STATE HEALTH FUNDS HERE

City and County Officials Held Conference with Dr. Rawlings to Induce Department to Re-new its Appropriation for Health Officer in Morgan.

Mayor E. E. Crabtree and county commissioners Frank Mawson and G. A. Dunlap went to Springfield yesterday and held a conference with Dr. T. D. Rawlings, relative to the possibility of putting the county in line to receive a portion of the state health funds. The decision of the legislature to cut down the appropriation for the health department from $100,000 to $30,000, led the department to withdraw the $2,500 a year which it had been contributing to the support of the county health officer here.

According to the policy of the International Health board which also contributed $2,500 from the Rockefeller Foundation, its support is not given where the funds are not used also, consequently it has withdrawn its funds from Morgan county. The city of Jacksonville and county have jointly borne the other half of the expenditure necessary to carry on the work. If the state and Rockefeller funds are to be withdrawn it is plain that the city and county must either carry the burden alone or abandon the health work in this territory.

This situation was laid before Dr. Rawlings by Mayor Crabtree and the commissioners. Although the head of the state health department held out little hope of the restoration of the state's contribution, he suggested that the International Health board might be induced to change its policy. However, the city and county officials see no reason why Morgan county should not have a portion of the $30,000 now at the command of the state department. The first county health officer in the state was placed here, and the experimental work being done has been watched by the entire state, as well as the International Health board. If the work must now be abandoned, the city and county will be the losers, and the experiment will have been a failure. It is hoped that the health department will see the matter in this light and continue its appropriation for the maintenance of a full time health officer in this county. If this is done the support of the Rockefeller Foundation will not be withdrawn, and the work can continue. The good results already accomplished in the county would seem to justify the state department in continuing its support.

WIFE KILLER NOW AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

After observation by State Alienist Dr. C. F. Reid of Chicago, Hal Wells of Pike county, has been committed to Jacksonville state hospital for observation. Wells is the Pike county man who several weeks since killed his wife with an axe and then attempted to suicide by cutting his throat with a razor.

At the time of the happening Wells was brought to Passavant hospital for surgical attention, but owing to the uncertainty of the authority on which he was brought here, the man was sent back to Pike county the following day.

He has been in jail in Pittsfield and the state alienist recently spent a day studying the case. There seems to be little question but that Wells is of unbalanced mind, but further tests are deemed advisable. It is declared insane Wells will be sent to the hospital for criminal insane at Chester. Otherwise he will stand trial for murder at the coming term of the Pike county court.

COACH MITCHELL IS BACK FROM CHAMPAIGN

Returns for Brief Vacation While Taking Special Coaching Course Under Skilled Instructors—Makes Hole in One on University Links

Coach John L. Mitchell of the local high school is in the city for a short visit and respite from his work in the special summer course for coaches being held at Illinois university in Champaign. He reports an attendance at the special course of nearly 500 coaches from all over the United States. A majority of those in attendance seem to be from southern states.

Instruction is being given the athletic directors by the most skilled members of the university coaching staff. Coach Gilmore Doble of Cornell is one of the instructors, assisting Coach Zupke in the football department. The high school coaches gathered at Champaign have the benefit of the skill of Coaches Huff in baseball, Ruby in basketball and Gil in track.

Coach Mitchell has been practicing on the university golf links and his efforts have not been without result. Recently he made a hole in one stroke, attaining his goal in a drive of some 130 yards.

Every sort of athletic activity is in progress on the university field and basketball and tennis courts. The zest for football, however, is not so great, on account of the intense heat. There is an attendance of at least 2,000 at the regular university summer school. Dick Hier, a resident of this city, is foregoing a vacation this summer and spending the time in the school of Journalism and in working on the staff of the Daily Illini. The special coaching course will terminate on July 28, and Coach Mitchell will return to the city for the remainder of the summer.

TO CURB FAST AUTO DRIVING IN PARK

There have been some complaints of fast auto driving in Nichols park. The police there are making every effort to control traffic as a matter of general safety. The purpose is to have the same rules enforced there that are in effect in the city of Jacksonville.

Dr. James A. Day will be absent from his Jacksonville office in the Duncan Building until August 8.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Westermeier motored from Arenzville to the city Thursday.

PEOPLE'S STORE MAKES HIT WITH LOVERS OF HOME

The People's Furniture Company occupies the building at number 209, and Stanley H. Wright is the sole proprietor of the business, which was originated by him in August, 1919.

This company carries a complete line of house furnishings, including beds, rugs, mattresses, refrigerators, stoves, linoleums, talking machines, in short everything needed to make a house habitable.

As the name suggests, this is pre-eminently a people's store, and its popularity is partly traceable to the fact that it offers an opportunity to exchange old goods for new by the payment of a reasonable difference in price.

A large and complete line of new goods is constantly kept on hand from which a selection may be made.

One specialty of this company is the purchase of entire household outfits, where the owners are planning to remove from the city, saving them the responsibility and frequently the financial loss of a private or public sale.

Mr. Wright buys only first class second hand goods and guarantees all second-hand furniture that he sends out.

The People's Furniture Company maintains a truck service, by which it is equipped to deliver a complete outfit of household goods to distances within 100 miles of the city, free of charge.

It is worthy of attention that this is the only side street in the city that is illuminated with boulevard lights.

RAY HOGAN MENDS WHEEL AILMENTS

There are hundreds of bicycles and motorcycles in Jacksonville, and when any of them goes wrong Ray Hogan usually knows about it. Mr. Hogan owns and operates one of the city's few repair shops of this kind and his location is 226 South Sandy street. His work requires his steady attention and that of an assistant, Clyde Cook.

Mr. Hogan has owned this shop for a year and is building up an excellent business through his thorough methods. Both he and Mr. Cook are experienced mechanics, having been around machinery all their lives.

In addition to doing repair work the Hogan Shop carries a complete line of bicycle and motorcycle accessories. Mr. Hogan is agent for a number of bicycles and motorcycles.

SINGER SEWING MACHINES HAVE O. K. OF WORLD

The Singer Sewing Machine Company needs no introduction to the sewing world, or, for that matter, to any other world. Its name and fame are known throughout the world.

The Jacksonville representative of the Company is James Meiklejohn, located at Number 214. Manager Meiklejohn is prepared to demonstrate that the Singer is the best machine on the market today, without any exception. In proof of this assertion, he offers to deliver and leave a machine on trial, free of charge, for two or three days, in the home of any prospective customer.

The Company carries in stock a complete line of sewing machines adapted for all purposes. One of the leading specialties of the Company is the 101-2 Electric Machine, with the motor built in the head of the machine.

Another specialty is a portable machine, which sits on a folding table. A Number 20 is for children and is operated by hand.

Any kind of a sewing machine can be made electric. There is no need for a woman to pump out her life on an old fashioned treadmill of a treadle. The Company carries motors of all kinds for all kinds of machines.

The Singer Sewing Machine Company caters to the High School trade. It has 87 machines in the High Schools and Colleges of this city. (Continued on Page 8.)

HIERONYMUS BROS. NEW IN CITY BUT GETTING FRIENDS

The members of this new firm are young men who have chosen Jacksonville as an ideal city in which to establish their business knowing that its citizens would welcome their electrical service as well as their friendship and cooperation.

Both men served in the late war for nearly two years after which they decided to engage in business together. Mr. B. R. Hieronymus was formerly a citizen of Beards-town, and has had nearly ten years of mechanical and electrical experience. Mr. L. F. Hieronymus was formerly a citizen of Winchester, who, after having been graduated from the High school of that city, took a business course in the Gem City Business college.

This new electric company has not been in business a year, nevertheless it has been receiving a fast growing trade which is remarkable. They have not had a dissatisfied customer thus far.

In their employment are two experienced young men, H. Beerman, formerly of Beards-town, and R. E. Pond of Peoria, Ill. In their work, about the city, they are especially complimented by patrons for cleanliness and courtesy.

Friendship and service are the two aims which stand foremost in the growth of the business, and it is their desire to have all Jacksonville citizens put this to a test.

WEIR IS SANDY'S SHOE REPAIR MAN

J. F. Weir is South Sandy's only shoe repair man and he has a lot of friends up and down the street, but his trade is by no means confined to this or any other street. He can count his patronage over the entire city and it is growing larger all the time.

Mr. Weir's shoe repair shop is located at 225 South Sandy street. He has been in this location for two years and has been a shoe repair man since he came to Jacksonville in 1907. A sure indication of his satisfactory work is his increasing business.

From time to time Mr. Weir has added to the equipment of his establishment until he has everything needed to doctor up shoes and extend their life. All of the machinery in the place is operated by electricity.

HUTSON DEALS IN CARS AND PLANES

The Hutson Auto and Aero Company, 213 South Sandy street, enjoys the distinction of being the only agency in Jacksonville for airplanes. Gay H. Hutson of the firm is known throughout this section of this state for his aerial performances and his work as an aviator adds prestige to the company.

Mr. Hutson has been in business here six years, his brother formerly being connected with the firm. He handles Maxwell and Chalmers automobiles and Minneapolis and Avery tractors. The Hutson company also deals in Curtis and Avro airplanes, carrying a complete line of accessories for cars, tractors and planes of these makes.

There is a repair department with two expert mechanics in charge, F. P. Rehmer and William Wallace. The Hutson firm is well established and has had a healthy growth.

NEW SYSTEM HAS LARGE PLANT ON SOUTH SANDY ST.

The complaint has sometimes been lodged against the modern girl that she is incompetent because she is not an expert baker. Time was when that charge might have been sustained, but with the development of the baker's art, it is rapidly becoming more popular to depend upon him for the "staff of life" both for reasons of quality and economy.

The New System Bakery operates two establishments in Jacksonville—one its bakery on South Sandy street and the other its retail store on West State street. The big bakery of the New System company adds to (Continued on Page 8.)

MALLEN'S HAVE PAPERED HOMES FOR MANY YEARS

There are few homes in Jacksonville whose rooms at some time or another have not been decorated with paper or paint from J. J. Mal-len & Son's wall paper store. This old and well known firm has been in business on South Sandy street for 21 years and before that time J. J. Mal-len, now deceased, was proprietor of a store on State street.

J. H. Mal-len, son of the founder of the business, has been in charge of the store in recent years but the original firm name continues. Mal-len & Son have brightened up more homes than any other firm or individual in Jacksonville.

The store carries a large stock of wall paper than any other company in this section of the state. The store has wall paper ranging in price from 10 cents to $25 per roll. Expert assistance is given patrons when selecting paper for their homes. Mal-len & Son want all patrons satisfied in this respect and have succeeded for many years.

The firm does interior decorating and maintains a force of expert paper-hangers. It also does picture framing, this business being quite brisk in the winter months. The heavy buying of wall paper comes in the spring and fall, and the store is now replenishing its stocks for the fall trade.

Mr. Mal-len has the assistance of conducting the store of Fred Johnson who has been with the firm fifteen years. He has helped thousands of people to select paper for the walls of their homes. Mrs. John Clancy is bookkeeper at the store and also assists with the trade.

Mal-len & Son is among the oldest firms on the "Wall Street of Jacksonville" and the service it renders the public is what makes it successful.

IT'S NO TROUBLE TO FIND COVERLY

W. M. Coverly has conducted an uninterrupted trade in meats and groceries in the two hundred block of South Sandy street for the past twenty-three years without a change in name or ownership. He has never missed a working day from the store, either by reason of sickness or vacation. His policy is "Always on the Job."

His ideal has always been to supply his customers with the very best the market can afford.

He delivers purchases to any address in the city.

He caters to the rural trade, and as a result, always has a fresh supply of eggs and milk and country produce.

He employs from two to five clerks, which are sufficient to wait upon all customers promptly and satisfactorily.

ANIMALS WOULD THANK CARTERS IF THEY TALKED

If cows and horses and dogs could talk, as they do in fairy tales, they would pay high compliments to Drs. S. J. & S. W. Carter, Jacksonville veterinarians. Both are widely known to owners of livestock of all kinds in Morgan and adjacent counties, and their life work in alleviating the suffering and returning usefulness of animals.

Like the physician who is called day and night to attend the sick, these expert veterinarians respond to emergency calls at any time. Many times their promptness and skill has meant the saving of a valuable horse or cow.

The Carters erected some years ago a hospital for animals at South Sandy and College streets. There are accommodations there for 13 horses and the same number of dogs and cats. In addition to caring for farm livestock, these gentlemen are often called upon to treat valuable dogs, cats and other pet animals.

Their practice extends as far west as the Illinois river, as far north as Virginia, south to Roodhouse and east to New Berlin. The Carters are among the very few veterinarians in this section of the state who are successful in radical operations for fistula, weathers and poll-evil. Many (Continued on Page 8.)

NO ODOR LINGERS IF CLOTHING IS PURITY CLEANED

Purity Shop, Cleaners, Pressers and Dyers, is owned and operated by Owen E. Franks at 216 South Sandy. His telephone number is 1124.

Mr. Franks bought this business, Jan 6th, 1922, since which time there has been steady growth in volume, and at times it has been necessary to put on a double shift to accommodate the trade.

One reason for his development, is the determination of the proprietor to accommodate his customers, even at the sacrifice of time and labor. This shop is prepared to clean, press and dye anything, capable of undergoing these processes, including rugs, curtains and hats.

It is in a position to give first class service in both ladies' and gentlemen's clothing, and any other article that it is necessary to dry-clean.

It has been the aim of Mr. Franks, to give the very best of service and the present business shows that the public is disposed to take advantage of this service.

The cleaning is all done with a DeLaVal continuous flow which means that the clothes are being cleaned with clean naphtha at all times, as the naphtha enters the washer and passes out three minutes later. Under the old system, the clothes had an odor of gasoline after being cleaned. In the new system, the clothes are odorless.

The plant is capable of giving as good service as can be obtained anywhere in the city, and will collect and deliver goods anywhere within the city limits.

Mr. Frank will bank his reputation on his work and expects to build up his business on the experience of satisfied customers.

OAKLAND DEALERS HAVE BEEN DOING DANDY BUSINESS

The Jacksonville Oakland Company, South Sandy and College streets, is a comparatively new firm but in two months has placed a number of automobiles of this well known make. The Oakland company is picking up business from the start and its prospects for the future are bright.

In the firm are Frank Moxon and Leonard Goveia, full partners. Both have had much experience with automobiles and other machinery. Mr. Moxon operated a garage north of Jacksonville until a few months ago. The Oakland is the only car company handles, but it does repair work on all makes of machines. Al Jensen is assistant to Mr. Moxon in the mechanical end of the business. Mr. Jensen is probably the oldest automobile mechanic in Jacksonville from point of service.

In addition to dealing in new cars and doing repair work, the company carries an extensive line of Oakland accessories and sells Texico oils and greases. It is the intention of the company to install a filling station soon and offer Texico gas to the car owning public.

The company is located in a commodious brick structure fronting on both Sandy and College streets. The office may be reached from either side. Miss Helen Webster is stenographer and bookkeeper there. There is no doubt but that Messrs. Moxon and Goveia have a growing business. Both are industrious and progressive and win friends easily. Their service is making them more friends, and the Jacksonville Oakland Company should not lack for patronage. When the filling station is installed their headquarters will be a busier place than ever.

 Headquarters of the Benson Sign Painting Company are at 218 South Sandy street. Mr. Benson should feel at home at this address, as it has been his place of business ever since he entered the work. The building was erected by his father and formerly housed K. of P. lodge No. 152.

In addition to being a master of the sign-painting art, Mr. Benson is an expert gold leaf worker and decorator. He carried on an extensive business in interior decorating.

For the last year Mr. Benson has been a representative in Morgan and eight nearby counties for the Durant Corporation. During this time he has had dealings with more than 1,500 well satisfied subscribers. This work does not interfere with the sign painting business which continues as usual.

Signs are a practical necessity to every business establishment whether they be on the building or in the windows. The public is guided largely by signs on business houses and without them would wonder at the un-enterprising management inside. Display signs play a big part in this era of advertising and Benson is ready at all times to accommodate and satisfy patrons.

 The importance of South Sandy street's part in Jacksonville industry.

On the first day the firm began business on West State street its output was 200 loaves of bread. Today, since its expansion and establishment of the bakery on South Sandy, the average output is 2,000 loaves and it rises as high as 3,500 loaves on Saturdays and holidays.

The New System employs 6 bakers, 2 clerks, 2 wagon drivers and 2 wrappers besides the members of the firm, making a total of 14 employees.

The baking plant is equipped with the latest and best machinery made for the purpose. The brand of the New System is "The Perfect Bread" and it lives up to its name. The New System does a wholesale business over five counties but prefers to cater to the home trade and the firm shapes its policies with that end in view.

Owners of the New System are T. H. Sanders and R. H. McAlister. These gentlemen have been together in the business for four years and it was a happy combination as the business has expanded steadily.

Sandy Street---South*By Ensley Moore

Some one said a while ago, that South Sandy was the "Wall Street" of Jacksonville.

That thought may not have occurred to all of our citizens, but Sandy has had a good history, and one all its own.

To begin with, in the early days it had, at the southwest corner and the Square the large residence of one of the city's well-to-do men, a man of high character, and a business man of note, namely Mr. Ellyn Wolcott.

Mr. Wolcott was the father of Ellyn Wolcott, of Mrs. William Kirby—mother of Judge E. P., and Capt. William A. Kirby, and Mrs. Frances Kirby McLaughlin, of Mrs. Julia Wolcott Carter and Lieutenant Richmond Wolcott. The premises included the large lot bounded on the south and west by the alleys.

Mr. Wolcott was a leading member of the Congregational church, and a member of the first Board of Trustees of Jacksonville Female Academy. He died a little before the Civil War.

His former residence passed into the hands of the Trustees of the Young Ladies Athenaeum in 1867, large additions were made to it, and it was occupied by that institution until 1884. Meantime, at the exact southwest corner of the Square, the building was erected which became the First National Bank down stairs, on the main floor; with the offices of the Athenaeum and of the Illinois Conservatory of Music on the second floor. West of this was Conservatory Hall, with stores on the first floor.

Judge William Thomas, so long a distinguished citizen, had erected a large two story and a half and basement residence across the alley south of Mr. Wolcott's, where the Judge also had his law office. This building became Dr. David Prince's Sanatorium about 1870, and was so used for several years. The grounds extended south to College avenue.

At the southeast corner of Sandy street and the Square—as early as 1857—was the large two story and a half brick store of Johnson and Richards. William B. Johnson and George M. Richards, old citizens dealing in stoves and tinware. They purchased the property from the I. O. O. F. organization. There the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, afterwards

Drs. S. J. & S. W. Carter are recognized as among the best of their profession and the record of both is sufficient to establish them in confidence of all farmers and owners of livestock.

LOCAL PEOPLE HAD LONG EASTERN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schoed-sack and three children are back from a trip to Cleveland and Detroit, in which they covered 1700 miles and had not the slightest difficulty of any kind, puncture, blowout, or mechanical.

In Cleveland the family visited for two days with Mr. Schoed-sack's sister, Mrs. Shreve. The local man stated that Cleveland is a beautiful city and reminded him of Jacksonville, only on a larger scale. He said that the lake drive to Euclid beach is thru some of the prettiest sights he ever saw.

Two days were spent in Detroit at the home of Mrs. Schoed-sack's sister, Mrs. Burbank, and with her brother, George Woodward, who is a store keeper for the Paige factory there. Mr. Burbank is a draftsman for the Dodge Brothers Co. and is busy designing new cars.

The local family did some good steady driving in their fine big car as is evidenced by the fact that the entire trip took only eight days, four of which were spent in the two cities.

SIGNS ALSEY MAN AS NEW SHORTSTOP

Frank Smith announced yesterday that S. S. O'Reilly of Alsey, which is the home town of Pitcher Fryman, has signed up for the season to play shortstop for the Indians. Last season he played with Winchester and this season he was with Roadhouse until that team recently disbanded, and it was through this that Smith was able to secure him. He comes with a high reputation and if he succeeds with this team the fans will soon feel that they also are "livin' the life of Reilly," as this addition to the ranks should make a very evenly balanced team and a consistent winning combination.

HEAVY BOMBARDMENT BY YANKS TRIMS SOX

Yanks Take Game 10 to 6 From White Sox Making It Three Straight

CHICAGO, July 12.—Inability to hit Bob Shawkey in the early innings coupled with a heavy bombardment by the Yankees, which drove Ted Blankenship off the mound, enabled New York to make it three straight from Chicago today, 10 to 6. Shawkey started the rally which put the league leaders out in front when he opened the third inning with a triple and finished the job by cracking out a double on his second time up in the inning, clearing the bases which were filled. Ruth cracked out his twelfth homer of the season with a man on.

Many Applications Received at University of Illinois.

URBANA, Ill. — The fame of the University of Illinois coaching course has spread far and wide. College trained coaches are in constant demand as shown by the numerous positions being filled by the coaches bureau, under the supervision of A. E. Smith. Daily an average of ten callers come in for recommendations and many principles and superintendents come here to interview prospects.

Nearly all of the graduates of the four year course have been placed in positions as well as many of the summer course students. The bureau has listed about 75 students who are willing to consider offers for better positions than they now hold.

Graduates of the four year course have been signed to coach in far corners of the United States. E. E. Aldrich goes to Ashland, Wisconsin, and Paul Becker to Duluth, Minnesota. A. W. Sher will be director of physical education at the Louisville, Mo. M. H. A. Clarence Ems will coach the line at Southwestern university, Georgetown, Texas. ## Market Report

By The Associated Press

QUIETEST MARKET
IN OVER A YEAR

FINANCIAL
Day's total sales 344,000
shares.
Twenty industrials averaged $8.64; net loss 16.
High 1923 — 105.38; low
87.64.
Twenty railroads averaged 78.11; net gain 38.
High 1923 — 90.63; low
76.85.
Total sales (par value) were $8,044,000.

NEW YORK, July 12. — Extreme dullness characterized today's stock market, the quietest full day session in over a year.
Price changes as a rule were narrow and irregular. Stocks started off fractionally higher and early gains were extended as a result of short covering period to the publication of Premier Balwin's statement in the house of commons. Business was virtually suspended while a synopsis of the statement was being published and the financial markets and Wall street's first reaction as reflected on the ticker, was slightly unfavorable.

Large traders, however, seemed disposed to await the full text and make a careful study of the same before extending their commitments and there was a continued absence of public participation so that afternoon trading continued sluggish with price changes generally unin-portant.

Oils failed to make any appreciable response to the reported reduction in domestic production. Steels showed little change on the day, U. S. Steel common again selling above 90. Rail shares continued to disregard the generally favorable carloadings reports, although the seasoned dividend payers showed the best buying speculations.

PRICE OF WHEAT
AVERAGED LOWER

CHICAGO July 12.—Altho predictions were renewed today that black rust would yet cause serious damage to part of the spring crop, wheat averaged a little lower in price today demand being of insufficient volume to absorb increased hedging sales when the market closed. Closing quotations were unsettled at 1 to 2 net decline. September 99½ to 99½
Dec. 1.02½ to 1.02½ Corn finished unchanged to ½c lower, oats at ½c off to ¾c up and provisions unchanged to a set back of 2c.

At first, the wheat crop reports at hand appeared to indicate that no serious damage from black rust was probable. Accordingly the market showed a downward tendency at the outset, but on the declines fairly good buying gave support to values. Besides comparative steadiness of the Liverpool market helped to check weakness here. At this juncture, word was received that a leading expert said heavy loss from black rust was certain around Aberdeen, S. D., and that the South Dakota wheat yield this season would be 7,000,000 to 8, 000,000 bushels less than the July official estimate.

All deliveries of wheat temporarily rose to above 1.00 a bushel and then sagged again in the late dealings when it was apparent that buying was workaday and not that the export demand was slow. Estimates were current that the carrying over of wheat in the United States July this year was 20,000,000 bushels more than was the case a year previous but that the total available supply expected for the 1923-1924 season shows a decrease of 2,000,000 bushels.

Rains in Kansas and Nebraska had a bullish effect on corn. Oats were relatively firm with elevator interests buyers of September.
Higher quotations on hogs steadied
the provision market.

Water Wall Protects Firemen

Simple protection is afforded the fireman of an eastern city with the adoption of an interesting type of fire-fighting equipment. The unit is mounted on a two-wheeled cart, so that it can be brought up quickly to be used against a fire at close range. The cart accommodates a fireman who sits in it, and is able to handle a powerful stream of water from a nozzle directly in front of him. A "gusher" pipe is mounted on the cart behind him, which sprays a curtain of water all around him, so that a "safety wall" of water protects him and serves amply to prevent blisters and burns. The nozzle proper is mounted in a ball socket, so that it can be swung in any direction with equal facility. It can be connected to four, and even six lines of hose, and throws a stream of water 125 feet into the air.

"Knock-'Em-Dead"
Rat Trap

A mechanical rat killer with a heavy spring and a rotating double hammer which strikes the animal on the head and throws him from 5 to 8 feet, is the latest in traps. This device automatically resets itself for the next blow, and two safety catches prevent accidental discharge. The rat is thrown away at once and leaves no odor to scare away other rats. The trap is made in two sizes, one for rats and one for mice.

Drills Horizontal Holes
Straight

Anyone who has ever used a brace and bit knows that in the drilling of horizontal holes there is a great tendency to raise or lower the brace a trifle while drilling, which, of course, results in the hole being drilled at an angle. To overcome this tendency slip a large washer that is free from burrs over the bit so that it rests on the smooth shank. As soon as the bit is held at an angle the washer will travel one way or the other, and the workman can correct the fault instantly.

Bottled Fluid Can Lift Tons

Siubad's geni flask has been outdone in real life by the invention of an expanding fluid easily carried in steel bottles by a child. The power may be released by a valve and used with jacks or other lifting devices to raise street cars, autos, and heavy weights. It is estimated that the power of the expanding fluid will raise 30,000 pounds in three seconds if properly applied.

A Simple Derrick for Farms

A handy and efficient derrick can be built in a short time from material found on nearly every farm. It consists of a discarded wagon tongue, pivoted on a fence post so as to revolve freely, and fitted with a simple winch for raising the load.

An iron pivot yoke is forged to the shape shown, or one may be built up of flat and round iron. A hole is drilled in the post top to accommodate the shank, an iron disk and a steel ball, taken from an old ball bearing, being set in the hole as shown, to make an easy-running bearing. The yoke straddles the tongue at its balancing point, a bolt being passed through a hole drilled in each. The winch consists of 3/4-in. pipe and fittings, and is arranged as indicated, the winch shaft passing through holes drilled through the ends of the "hounds." One end of a stout cable is securely fastened to the winch shaft, and the other end to an iron collar that is an easy fit around the bottom of the post. This collar is held in position by half collars above and below it, screwed to the post. Hooks or clamps to suit the load are suspended from the outer end of the tongue. A rod, sliding through the ends of the hounds, near the winch shaft, as indicated, is pulled out to keep the crank from revolving when it is desired to swing the load. With this arrangement it is possible for one man to operate the derrick unassisted.
